Our Guest

Daniel Burke has served as the CEO of The Arc of South Norfolk & Lifeworks, Inc. since October of 2010, serving his entire career at the agency. He received his degree in Rehabilitative Services from Syracuse University which is known for its disability studies department. Dan serves on the boards of the ADDP and The Arc of Massachusetts.
Re-Opening Experience

Dan and his team had residential services and some employment support from the start of COVID 19. They opened day programs early in July and increased family support & social-recreational programs too. He will share how it’s going and the agency’s consistent safety protocol.
